Retreat Speaker: Rich Hung

Rich grew up in Huntington Beach, but recently moved to Diamond Bar. He finished with a BS in Business Administration from UC Riverside in 2007 and is currently in his 4th year pursuing an MDiv with an emphasis in Spiritual Formation at Talbot School of Theology at Biola University.

While a part-time seminarian, he is also serving full-time in a non-profit ministry called California School Project – which has a big vision to introduce high school students to Jesus, see them make commitments to follow Jesus, and help them get connected to the local church. For the last 5 years, he has been a member of South Bay Evangelical Christian Church in Palos Verdes.

Outside of school and ministry, Rich loves the water – which includes swimming and surfing, as well as watching and playing basketball.

Other activities available: gym - basketball & volleyball courts, miniature golf, paint ball*, climbing wall, and hiking. *$20/person, $15/person

Cost of retreat covers 3 meals on Saturday, 1 meal on Sunday and lodging for 2 nights.
